Records untouched as runners battle the heat in Heineken Yard

Despite temperatures that reached into the low 30s, over 300 racers took part in the annual Heineken Yard footrace Friday in Minden. Starting from Tennyson Road, the participants ran into Minden along Deep Bay Road. The course then looped north on Main Street to Parkside Avenue, past the arena and back to Main Street by North Water Street. The finish line, as usual, was in front of the CIBC bank.

The course records were untouched as Trevor Calwell of Mississauga crossed the line first with a time of 23:27. The best time for male runners is 21:21, held by Brendan Mathias.

The top female runner was Nancy Tinari who finished the 7.4 km course in 26:00 minutes, almost a minute

Board accepts bid for old hospital

The Haliburton Highlands Health Services Board has accepted the bid submitted by Dr. Peter Bennett for the purchase of the old Minden Hospital.

The bid was one of two received in response to a call for tenders issued earlier this year.

Dr. Bennett, a veterinarian who has served the community for more than 22 years, plans to relocate his practice to the location. "It would be my intention to use the Minden Hospital as the Minden Animal Hospital," he said. He currently operates the Minden Animal Clinic in a facility attached to his home on Bobcaygeon Road, just north of the village.

According to the letter accompanying the bid, Dr. Bennett said he would be interested in maintaining the present "look" of the building, suggesting that the hospital was a landmark in the community.

Dr. Bennett's bid of $115,000 was accepted by the HHHS board at its July 26 meeting. The second bid was received from John Pentney, owner of Home Hardware and Building Supplies, across the road from the former hospital site. His bid was $90,000.

Chairman of the board, Jack Brezina, pointed out that the funds from the sale of the building have been earmarked for the completion of the helipad at the site of the new Minden Hospital.

Sale of the hospital is contingent on approval by the Ministry of Health, considered a formality. Before the land can be transferred, the new helipad must be operational. At the moment, medical evacuation helicopters are using the landing pad at the old hospital.

Work was slated to start last week on the completion of the new helipad.

Auctioneer Norm Mills searches the crowd for a bid during the Rotary Club/ St. Paul's Anglican Church dinner and auction sale. Those attending enjoyed a roast beef dinner before participating in a looney auction co-ordinated by Clayton Cameron and then a live auction with a variety of items on the block. The evening raised approximately $6000 for Rotary Club projects and $1200 for St. Paul's. The church had been the host of the event for a number of years to assist with its building projects and this year handed the fund-raiser over to the Rotary Club.

CLEANING HOUSE: There was a steady stream of residents at the Scotch Line Landfill site in Minden Saturday. The municipality was hosting a toxic waste collection day to take old paint, chemicals, gas and propane tanks, just about anything that shouldn't go into the dump. Bill Chambers, left, of Carnarvon was there early Saturday with several items from his garage. A second was held Saturday afternoon at the Pine Springs dump for Algonquin Highlands property owners.

Business park farm house slated for demolition

The farmhouse at the corner of Prince street and Highway 35 could soon disappear from the horizon.

According to Minden Hills Reeve Ross Rigney, there has been an increase in interest in the Minden Business Park and the house could be in the way of a number of development proposals.

The reeve would not identify the businesses which are showing an interest in the park, noting that until a deal is signed and everything is secured, he doesn't want to be raising expectations about new development. After it was developed, the park was touted as the location of a Canadian Tire store. That development fell through when the land was found to be unsuitable for the size of building the retailer planned to construct. There was a great deal of anticipation about the arrival of the Canadian Tire store in the community. That hope was dashed when the developer withdrew the offer, even though the builder has said he is still looking for a suitable location in the immediate Minden area.

Prince Street traffic has now been re-routed through the business park. The road, which will be known as Booth Crescent in honour of former Reeve Reg Booth, was paved last week.

Rigney said that when plans for the building's demolition became known last week, several members of the community expressed interest in preserving the farm house. "I understood from earlier conversations that they were only interested in the bricks and some of the interior woodwork," Ross said. "If they want to move the house, they will have to do it soon."

The municipality is expected to call for tenders soon for the demolition of the building.

Look up, look waaay up

It isn't unusual for a hollyhock to reach a height of seven feet or a bit more, but a 10½ foot specimen is a rare plant. Nobody is more surprised about the 10½ foot hollyhock growing on her trailer lot in the Wessell Trailer Park than Catherine Cutler, whose green thumb is responsible for the towering plant. The soil in which the plant is thriving is not what would be considered ideal and Cutler said she has never fertilized the plant. The hollyhock has grown about a foot in just over two weeks and could top 11 feet or more before the growing season ends.

Cutler says her biggest fear is that the wind will topple the plant before it finishes its reach for the sky. One thing it has in its favour is a buffer of pine trees to the west, as well as trailers and other trees that would diminish the effects of the wind.

Cutler has other hollyhocks in her garden, but none are even close to the height of the giant that dwarfs everything but the pine trees.

Deep Bay Road tragedy

Crash takes father of 2

A Minden father of two is dead following a single car accident on Deep Bay Road July 31.

Dean Thrasher, 36, was pronounced dead after the vehicle he was driving left the road and struck a rock cut. The car became engulfed in flames with the driver trapped inside.

The roadway was closed for most of the afternoon on Tuesday as police completed a detailed investigation at the scene. Members of the Minden Fire Department were also on hand to assist.

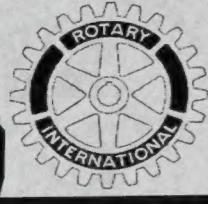

Police are still uncertain as to what caused the accident. The investigation continues.

Funeral service for the deceased was held Saturday. He is survived by his wife Celina and children Donny and Daniel.

Haliburton musician will be featured in Roy Thomson Hall Seniors' Jubilee

There are few people in the Highlands who can claim to have performed on the stage of Roy Thomson Hall in Toronto, but as of August 17, there will be at least one to have that honour.

Larry VanLieshout will join two other musical colleagues to be a part of the week-long Seniors' Jubilee. Sponsored by the Royal Bank, the festival is a celebration of senior performers from across the province.

"It is pretty exciting to be a part of this performance," VanLieshout commented. "It is going to be quite an experience."

The Haliburton resident is a well known real estate agent who is also an accomplished accordionist. Over the years he has performed at functions at our Lady of Fatima Roman Catholic Church in Minden, at senior citizen homes in the county and at other functions.

He has also teamed up with two other accordion players, John Dortmans of Burlington and Casey Gordyn of Caledonia. All three have a European heritage and met eight years ago at a Dutch gathering. With a shared interest in the accordion, they started playing together. "Between us we have over 200 years of accordion experience," Larry says with a chuckle.

Larry's background with the accordion goes back to his youth in Holland. He recalls playing for the soldiers during the war. The appreciative soldiers would give him some chocolate or a piece of bread. "I have been playing the accordion since I was a kid," he says. "I stopped when I was a teenager, then took it up again."

The trio call themselves the Reed Jammers, a reference to the fact that the accordion is a reed instrument. They have played at a variety of venues including for Dutch veterans organizations, at the Dutch Pavilion at the Carabram in Brampton, Legion Festivals and in Mississauga, Haliburton and Haliburton County.

"I have always enjoyed playing the accordion," Larry says. "I took it with me on a winter trip to Texas where it saw a lot of use."

Larry noticed the audition call for the Seniors' Jubilee in the TV Times. He sent a letter to the agent who manages the show, explaining the groups background and repertoire. He received a phone call to attend an audition in June.

"The agent liked what he heard and we were booked," Larry said. The performance is strictly on a volunteer basis and while they won't be paid for their appearance, the organizers will provide a luncheon for the performers.

The show is a five day extravaganza which will feature 1300 entertainers. Some are booked to play in the lobby during a morning session, while others appear during the afternoon show. "It is quite an effort to bring all these performers together," Larry noted. There will be a variety of performers, singers, dancers and comedians all through the week.

The Reed Jammers will be playing five songs in their ten minute appearance on the Roy Thomson Hall stage including: Just Because; La Paloma; Musetta; Lilli Marlene; and will finish the set with a rousing rendition of Roll Out The Barrel.

The opportunity to appear on the Roy Thomson Hall stage is quite an accomplishment for Larry and his fellow performers. It is one which certainly will be a highlight of his musical career.

Haliburton Highlands OPP report

Five hurt, including three children, in Highway 121 collision

Five people sustained injuries, two serious enough to require emergency medical evacuation, following a collision between a tractor trailer and a car early Friday morning, August 3.

The collision occurred on Highway 121 east of Haliburton at the Buckhorn Road, (County Road 3). The accident occurred at 8 a.m.

According to witnesses, the 1999 Toyota Camry, driver by 37 year old Kathleen Coulson of Toronto, was northbound on the Buckhorn Road when it went through the intersection without stopping and was struck by an eastbound tractor trailer driven by Gregory Hill of Oshawa.

Five passengers in the car were sent to Haliburton Hospital. Lillian Vincze, 55, was flown to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto by air ambulance. Four year old Duncan Coulson of Etobicoke, suffering from abdominal injuries, was airlifted to the Sick Kids Hospital in Toronto after initial treatment at the Haliburton Hospital.

Treated and released from the Haliburton Hospital were 11 year old Alex Coulson, eight year old Grant Flagler and the driver of the car.

The driver of the transport truck was not injured in the accident.

Traffic was restricted for most of the day on Highway 121 as police completed the investigation. The highway was opened to regular traffic flow by 3 p.m. Friday.

Police say that charges are pending in the incident.

Motorcycle fatality

A Tory Hill man is dead following a motorcycle accident on County Road 121 at Loon Lake.

According to police, 49 year old Robert Aldred died when his Honda CX Deluxe 500 motorcycle went out of control after rounding a curve. The motorcycle crossed the centreline and ended up in the ditch on the opposite side of the road.

The driver was transported to Haliburton Hospital where he was pronounced dead. A post mortem was ordered. Police do not believe that alcohol was a factor in the accident.

Thefts

Two outboard motors and a camera were taken by thieves in three incidents across the county.

A 35 mm Canon camera was removed from a car in Dorset on July 22.

A 15 horsepower outboard motor was removed from a boat tied to a dock in Haliburton on August 1.

A 4 horsepower motor was removed overnight from a boat at a residence on Reynolds Road in Minden, August 1.

Looking for witnesses

Police are seeking the assistance of anyone who may have witnessed an incident July 19 on County Road 121 near Stevens Road.

According to the police, at about 11 a.m., a traffic control worker involved with the construction project in that area, was struck by a passing car. The driver did not stop. The flagman was knocked to the ground by the force of the collision. Another driver stopped to assist the injured worker.

The car was described as a small brown or rust coloured station wagon, driven by an older male driver.

The worker was taken to Minden Hospital by ambulance where he was treated for a hip injury.

Anyone with information concerning the incident is asked to contact the Haliburton Highlands Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police at 705-286-1431. They also wish to talk with the person who stopped and assisted at the scene.

Swimmer injured

Police are investigating an incident on Bob Lake in which a swimmer was injured by the propeller of a boat.

According to the investigation, 37 year old Laurie Simpson was swimming near her dock while her husband, Jerry Price was working on the 16 foot boat with a 70 horsepower outboard motor.

The boat had been out on the lake and was not operating properly. Price was working on the engine when the motor suddenly jumped into gear and the

Thank you

It seems to be a bad year for motor vehicle accidents. A week hasn't gone by this summer that we haven't heard of a serious accident that claimed a life or resulted in serious injuries.

There is no question these accidents have taken their toll on the families and friends of the individuals involved. But, what is often unseen is the impact on the lives of those people who respond to these emergencies. Members of the county fire departments, the ambulance service and officers with the OPP have been called upon many times this summer to rescue trapped individuals and extricate the bodies of those who did not survive.

While these emergency services personnel work methodically at the scene, showing little or no emotion, it is difficult to believe they are not touched by the tough situations they face. The emotional strain, especially when dealing with an individual they know or young children, often means the weight of their job is with them long after they have gone home.

While the community has been appreciative of the service provided by the emergency personnel, we do not always recognize the long-term personal impact on all members of the emergency response team.

We salute them for their dedication. We also recognize that their jobs are difficult and emotionally taxing. Thank you for being there for us.

A 'wake-up' call for drivers

Editor:

I wish to share my experience in hope that it will serve as a "wake-up" call for all motorists, including the Ontario Provincial Police.

On July 24, I was almost involved in a head-on collision with a police cruiser that was passing a van on a hill. Although the officer had the cruiser's lights flashing and the siren going, the van did not pull over, and I could neither see nor hear the cruiser from my side of the hill. It was a very close call that left me badly shaken at the time, and moreso later, because my husband was killed in a head-on collision several years ago at exactly the same time of day. The incident brought back all these memories.

The next day I contacted the OPP detachment and spoke with the officer who was driving the cruiser. I found out the officer was headed to a life and death situation. The van driver should have pulled over. In this situation, the officer admitted that it would have been better to wait before passing the van. I received an apology.

It is a privilege to drive, not a right...and with that right goes responsibility. This is my plea to all driver (including myself): Please check your rear-view mirror every eight seconds so that you know what is behind you. If there is an emergency vehicle with the lights flashing and siren sounding, pull over and allow it to pass. This also applies to those coming in the opposite direction. This is my plea to the OPP: Please make sure that conditions to pass are safe. Your lives are important too!

To the officer involved, thank you for your honesty. You have earned my respect. To my supervisor, co-workers, friends and walk-in clinic physician, thank you for the listening ear and the many hugs. Above all, I thank God for being there with me. Maybe my story, will help prevent another similar incident.

Linda May-Powers,
Haliburton.

Two times lucky

Editor:

For the second time I'm counting my blessings!

First time, 27 years ago to the day, July, 1974. We had raised the funds privately to buy Haliburton's first ambulance. For some foolish reason, I decided to try it out with a major heart attack. Thanks to the driver and attendant, both by the name of "Woods" they transported me to our little Haliburton Hospital. Not having a personal physician, I was adopted by two new young doctors, Dr. Chapman and Dr.

Heyes. (Thought you might like that Bob!)

Now this time, thanks to Jim Mifflin's quick thinking when he recognized my symptoms, slurred speech and unable to pick up my wallet when I dropped it on the floor, he called the Algonquin Highlands emergency number. Being close by, two of their finest were there in no time, to whisk me off to Minden (the nearest facility) where Dr. Lowers checked me over and prepared for a speedy trip to Peterborough Civic Hospital.

Great health care system

Thanks to a great Health System that included Dr. Semmler (the neurologist who directed my recovery), nurses both RNs and RPNs, students and volunteers, therapists and many technicians who have a very important role to play for a successful team. I told one nurse a smile was the most important thing she had to dispense to speed our recovery. If a nice nurse smiles, she's beautiful. If the same person has a scowl on her face, she is not worth a second glance.

Thanks to the smiles, TLC and a lot of people who did their jobs very well, I was ready to come home in a record one week after being admitted.

Editor:

The Haliburton County Snowmobile Associations regrets the friction that Bill 101 has caused between the recreational snowmobiler and the winter fisher and hunter.

When I was appearing before the government committee at hearings in Peterborough, I personally urged that special consideration be given to such users. We have been able to live together very well in the past and truly appreciate the support of land-owning members of the OFAH by allowing us access to their lands. I respectfully request that OFAH members reconsider their apparent campaign of shutting down vital trails as a means of punishing the recreational snowmobiler.

We, like you, are volunteers who provide a winter tourism service to the community and any loss of trail is a serious threat to our system.

I pledge that we will do everything possible in support of the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs to ensure that OFAH members, while hunting and fishing, have free access to our trails.

Peter Overington,
President,
Haliburton County Snowmobile Association.

The rules

The Times welcomes signed letters to the editor on subjects of interest to our readers. Short letters are most likely to be chosen for publication, but the use of any material is at the discretion of the editor. The editor reserves the right to edit letters to meet space requirements, for clarity or to avoid obscenity, libel or invasion of privacy. Upon request, names may be withheld, but only very rarely and for compelling reasons. Letters published do not necessarily reflect the editorial policies or beliefs of this newspaper. All letters must bear the handwritten signature of the writer and include the address and phone number for verification purposes.

Flushed with success

Just off the top of your head, what would you finger as the most significant invention of all time?

Fire?

The wheel?

The laser?

Interplanetary travel?

William Shatner's toupee?

How about the flush toilet? No, I'm serious.

The humble flush toilet may be the butt (sorry) of a thousand jokes, but it's one of the reasons we don't have plagues anymore. And it's the main reason our big cities aren't a lot more repulsive than they are.

If it wasn't for flush toilets we'd all have three seriously unwelcome things in our lives: chamber pots, revolting smells and flies. Lots and lots of flies.

The flush toilet has been around for a long time. Royal families in Ming Dynasty were using a primitive form of flush toilet more than 4,000 years ago. Then humankind just sort of forgot about them for about 35 centuries until in 1596, a godson of Queen Elizabeth made her a gift of what he called 'a privy in perfection'.

Not exactly.

The new toilet merely used water to transfer the contents of the toilet bowl to a nearby reeking cesspool - but it was an improvement on the old boghouse. The godson was clever, but none too bright.

He published a scatological pamphlet about the Queen's new biffy. Liz found out about it and banished him and his new-fangled invention from the Court. It wasn't until 1775 that a British mathematician and watchmaker by the name of Alexander Cumming came up with a method to, as he put it: "constantly retain a quantity of water to cut off all communication of smell from below." The modern flush toilet had been born.

Now that I've convinced you of your failure to appreciate the finer points of the common john, it's time for you to hie yourself down to your travel agent, there to book a ticket to Worcester, Massachusetts. That's where you'll find The American Sanitary Plumbing Museum - the only museum I know of that is solely devoted to plumbing.

They've got 'em all at the Museum

- from smelly indoor one-holers that dumped waste right into the basement to a heavenly water closet bedecked with gold trim and blue porcelain designs on the bowl plus a hand-carved oak seat that graced the bottoms of Victorian gentry back in the 1800's.

So who goes to a plumbing museum?

Hundreds and hundreds - and not just plumbers either. College engineering classes come through to study how their predecessors handled the problems of waste disposal. Artists come and set up their sketchpads to try and capture the beauty of the delicate, hand-forged tubs and toilets of yesteryear. They know better than most that you just don't see that kind of craftsmanship in plumbing anymore.

Speaking of which, what's the next big leap for flush toilets? I don't want to start a panic, but I have heard of an engineer in Ottawa who's trying to get a patent for his latest invention. It's a briefcase that turns into a portable toilet.

Suddenly that guy sitting next to me on the bus using his cell phone doesn't seem so bad.

After 13 years in Sunderland, Lynn Brethour, left, has opened a pet food store in Minden. Pet Tyme, located next to the Jug City store on Highway 35, carries a complete line of food, accessories and supplies for a wide variety of pets. "I try to carry pet food made from natural ingredients," Lynn explained, "but we do carry all brands." Lynn moved to the area three years ago and opened the store June 1. Assisting Lynn at Pet Tyme, will be Elaine Blakey, right.

You Asked???

Q: How often does my septic tank need pumping out?

A: The Ministry of the Environment recommends that you have your tank pumped on a regular basis. Every 2-3 years is suggested to avoid sludge reaching the outlet level and flowing into the leaching bed.

HCMC looks to the future of the shooting sports

Youth shooting event draws small, enthusiastic group

by Jerry Grozelle

"Shooting can be fun, safe and enjoyable," said Dan Londry, the Bullseye Captain at the Haliburton

TAKING AIM: Sean Roberts demonstrates his marksmanship at the Haliburton County Marksmen Club. Other than a bit of archery practice, Sean doesn't get much of a chance to shoot back home in Ohio. He makes up for lost time when he's visiting his grandparents in Kinmount, though. His grandfather Herbert Clark, seen here keeping an eye on his grandson, is a member of the HCMC and Sean takes every opportunity to accompany his grandfather for some target shooting at the range.

County Marksmen Club (HCMC) and a licensed range officer. It can also be an activity the whole family can enjoy.

With that in mind, Londry organized a small youth shoot at the HCMC range near Kinmount.

The day's activities started at about 10 a.m. on a recent Sunday, with instruction on safe handling of firearms for the seven junior shooters. A couple of the youth shooters, including Dan Londry's 14 year-old daughter Amanda, have had some shooting experience. Amanda has already completed her hunter safety training course and has taken the turkey hunting course. One of the thrills of the hunt that Dan Londry has stashed away in his memory is from a spring turkey hunt when he and Amanda had two deer walk by within 10 feet. But that's another story.

slower than the record held by Alison Wiley at 25:01.

Caldwell didn't feel the heat was a major factor in his run. The Kilcoo Camp alumnus (92-96) was pleased with his showing. He had participated in the Yard two years ago.

The top runners from the local community were Sean Keaney of Minden, who placed 18th with a time of 28:09, and Markus Carl of Haliburton, who placed 19th with a time of 28:17.

Organizers were pleased with the race. All participants completed the course without incident and despite the heat, there appeared to be no serious problems.

The following are the top 25 finishers with the first place in each division indicated in bold face.

1. Trevor Caldwell, 23:27, M 19-29, 1/25

2. Mike Logue, 24:05, M 19-29, 2/25

21. Jackie Sandoz, 28:25, F 19-29, 1/19

22. Csaba Nagy, 28:48, M 30-49, 10/94

24. Donald Air, 28:59, M 30-49, 11/94

25. Ian Campbell, 29:01, M 30-49, 12/94

FIRST TO FINISH: Trevor Caldwell breaks the tape as he completes this year's Heineken Yard. The Mississauga residents and Kilcoo Camp alumnus finished the 7.4 km course in 23:27.

THEY'RE OFF: Runners stream down Tennyson Road, a new starting point for this year's Heineken Yard. Some 315 participants braved the heat to keep the annual footrace tradition alive. Proceeds from the race go to the AMICI fund for under privileged campers.

Other top three finishers

31. Bob Trimble, 29:38, M 50-99, 2/40

51. Marcel Crete, 31:11, M 50-99 3/40

was held on Sunday, July 22, was to encourage some young people to try the sport, as well as instill the safety aspect in the new shooters and reinforce it in the ones who have had previous shooting experience.

"There's a lot of misunderstanding when it comes to firearms and shooting sports," Londry said. He stressed that it is better for young people to learn safe gun handling and shooting at an organized range, with qualified instructors than to try to let on that guns don't exist.

The age range of the young shooters taking part in the July 22 event was nine or 10 to 14. The firearms were .22 calibre rimfire rifles, shooting targets at 25 and 50 yards.

"It can really be a lot of fun," Londry said. "It's good time spent together."

Another participant in the youth event was 14 year-old Sean Roberts, who lives in a suburb of Columbus, Ohio. He spends his summers with his grandparents in Kinmount. Since his grandfather Herbert Clark is an avid hunter and shooter, it was natural for Sean to participate in the youth shoot.

"I really had fun," Sean said. "I'm looking forward to doing it again. The people are really nice."

Unfortunately for Sean, he will probably have to wait until next summer to participate in another organized shoot at the Haliburton County Marksmen Club. He will be going back to Columbus in a couple of weeks. But, there's no doubt he will be able to talk his grandfather into taking him to the range a few more times before he has to go back to school.

Dan Londry said he is planning to organize another youth shooting event for late September. "We're hoping to have two or three next year," he said.

Haliburton lawn bowlers are always welcome

by Jim Hindle

The end of the season is fast approaching for the Minden Indoor Lawn Bowling Club and while we have increased our membership from the Minden area, we have not heard from the village of Haliburton. So, this is a special message to all you Haliburton area people who have lawn bowled before, or wish to try out this great sport: Remember us for next season. The dues are only $40 for the season.

Our third and final fund-raising jitney for club members will be held on Friday, August 10, starting at 10 a.m. Please sign up on the bulletin board at the club.

Halls Lake spawning beds enhanced

Volunteers from the Haliburton Highlands Outdoors Association (HHOA) and the Halls and Hawk Lakes Property Owners Association, with assistance from the Haliburton Highlands Stewardship Ranger Crew and MNR staff, deposited 70 tons of rock rubble onto lake trout spawning shoals in Halls Lake on July 21.

The rock and volunteers were transported by barge, provided by Larry Hewitt Contracting, to four individual spawning shoals which were marked by MNR staff.

Volunteers manually deposited the 10 to 20 centimetre diameter rock at depths of two to three meters.

Lake trout will use these new spawning areas in the fall to deposit their eggs in the cracks and crevices of the rock rubble. The eggs will remain in incubation until early spring, hatching into sac fry in late February, and then emerging as young fry in May when they make their way to deeper water.

The volunteer effort was co-ordinated by Kim Roberts and Keith Hodgson of the HHOA, with funding and expertise provided by the MNR, through the Community Fisheries and Wildlife Involvement Program (CFWIP). CFWIP projects provide members of the public with an opportunity to participate in hands-on fish and wildlife management and conservation activities. To find out more about the program, contact David Flowers, MNR Extension Biologist, at 286-5215.

SPAWNING BED REHAB: Volunteers from the Haliburton Highlands Outdoors Association, Halls and Hawk Lakes Property Owners' Association, and the Haliburton Highlands Stewardship Ranger Crew work on a Halls Lake spawning shoal, placing rock rubble to enhance the lake trout spawning success. Ministry of Natural Resources staff identified and marked the shoals.

MNR offers tips on avoiding black bear encounters

The Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) reminds berry pickers, hikers and naturalists to stay alert and be prepared when heading into "bear country."

"Berries are now ripening and black bears are hungry for them," said Maria de Almeida, Biologist with the MNR. "Since people love berries as well, the chances of encountering bears increase at this time of year."

If you're in bear country, stay alert, make lots of noise to let bears know you're coming, and carry an air horn or whistle to scare animals off. If you do encounter a bear and you're carrying food, drop the food and slowly back away. Do not run or climb a tree. Bears can do both things better. If the bear is in a tree, leave it alone and remove people and dogs from the area. Bears will usually come down and leave when they feel safe. Before heading into remote areas, check with your local MNR office to find out if you're heading into bear country.

Bears are also attracted to other food sources, such as garbage. If you remove food sources, the nuisance bear problem usually disappears. To reduce bear problems at your campsite, home or cottage:

- ✦ store garbage in bear-proof containers (steel is best)
- ✦ regularly dispose of garbage (in some cases this may mean not composting) and put garbage out the morning of pick-up, not the night before
- ✦ keep barbecues and picnic tables clean
- ✦ wait until the fall to fill bird feeders
- ✦ keep pet food inside the house;
- ✦ refrain from dumping fish heads and guts in the bush — freeze them and put out with your garbage
- ✦ if camping, place food in the trunk of your car, or suspend your food pack from a rope at least four metres off the ground between two trees, and well away from the campsite.

For more information on living with black bears, visit the MNR Web site at www.mnr.gov.on.ca/MNR/bears/ or download a copy of Living with Black Bears in Ontario - A Guide to Co-existing, or obtain a copy from your local MNR office. Also available, bear awareness artwork to download for use at home, cottage or campsite.

Prostate cancer monthly meeting

Support group hears from cancer experts

— submitted —

Following a successful beginning in June, the Haliburton Highlands Prostate Cancer Support Group held its second meeting on Tuesday, July 24 at Hyland Crest Senior Citizens' Home in Minden.

The speaker for this meeting was Dr. Michael Jewett, head of urology at the Toronto General Hospital, Princess Margaret Hospital and the Toronto West Hospital and former head of the department of urology, University of Toronto. Approximately 30 were on hand for the meeting.

Before Dr. Jewett spoke, Rick Ratcliff introduced the interim board of directors which included Rick Ratcliff, president, Jane Leavis, secretary/librarian; Vern Gilbert, treasurer and Ross Rigney.

Dr. Jewett concentrated on some of the newer forms of treatments for prostate cancer, describing the various stages.

Diagnosis: In its early days, prostate cancer can be successfully treated. The difficulty is that there are seldom any symptoms. Men should seek a prostate specific antigen (PSA) test if there is any reason to think they might be at risk (family history, certain racial backgrounds, for example). A biopsy will confirm any doubts.

Staging: The extent of the cancer can be established by a rectal examination, a bone scan or an ultrasound. If the cancer is localized, treatment is recommended, depending on the health and expected life span of the patient. There may be side effects, however, including sexual dysfunctions or urinary problems.

Curative treatments: The treatments mostly comprise of surgery or radiation. The surgery is often radical prostatectomy, that is the complete removal of the prostate gland. Our urologists are well trained and the costs are relatively low (about $6,000). Surgery may lead to urinary or potency problems. There is now a new (French) technique being introduced into Canada — a laparoscopic technique involving a robotic arm, working by remote control, through small ports, thus avoiding large incisions. Dr. Jewett also showed slides of the radiation process, describing in detail how the approach works. He also mentioned the use of radioactive seeds implanted in the prostate.

Questions followed about the various processes, the odds of curing and of recurrences and the cost of drugs and other treatments. The evening was a great help to those who attended in understanding many of the ramifications of the disease and we are grateful to Dr. Jewett for taking his valuable time to address the group.

The next meeting will be held on August 21 at 7 p.m. at Hyland Crest. For further information, please contact Rick Ratcliff at 286-6699.

Tags are in the mail

Annual moose validation tags now being distributed

To help sustain Ontario's moose population, bull and cow validation tags are in the mail to hunters successful in the province's annual moose validation tag draw.

More than 102,000 hunters entered the draw for the 17,672 tags. The computerized draw randomly allocated tags to groups and individuals who applied by the deadline of May 15. Of the available tags, 17,234 were distributed in the draw.

While the total number of moose hunters applying held steady this year, both the number of tags available and the number of group applications increased. That means that this year more hunters will have access to tags.

Hunters can find out if they will be receiving a tag by calling 1-800-288-1155 toll-free on a touch-tone phone. This line will operate 24 hours a day from August 1 to December 31, 2001. Hunters need their valid 15-digit Outdoors Card number to access their draw result.

Hunters who were unsuccessful in the draw can learn how to obtain a surplus tag by calling the information line. This year there were 438 surplus tags when the draw was completed. These tags are for Wildlife Management Units that received fewer applications than the number of tags available, largely because these areas are remote and have limited access.

Terry Fox organizers ready for annual run

Planning is well under way for the annual Terry Fox Run in Minden.

According to co-chair Linda Brandon, this year's event will be once again held in conjunction with other walks on September 16. "We will be part of a Canada-wide, even world-wide, effort to raise money for cancer research in memory of Terry Fox," Brandon said.

The walk/run begins at the Minden Community Centre with registration between 9 and 11 a.m. "Bring your family, friends your staff or just yourself," Brandon said. "This is a fun event that is not intended as a race, although there are those who like to put some speed in their stride."

Water stations will be located along the route to keep participants refreshed and when they return to the finish line, BBQ hot dogs and juice will be available for a nominal fee. Souvenir Terry Fox merchandise will also be offered. All proceeds, from the pledges, and sales will go to the Terry Fox Foundation for cancer research.

Pledge sheets for this event are available now from a number of locations, including The Times office 134 Main Street Minden. For more information contact the co-chairs, Linda Brandon at 286-1795 or Jerry Grozelle at 286-1288.

Moose validation tag quotas for bulls and cows are set annually. Quotas are set according to provincial guidelines designed to meet population objectives while maintaining a sustainable harvest. This year's increase in validation tags is the first in many years.

Construction company fined for allowing sediment into Gull River

Allowing sediment from a construction site on Highway 35 in Minden to flow into the Gull River cost Cruickshank Construction of Morrisburg $2,000.

Prior to the hearing of the case, the company donated $1,750 to the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School's Living Legacy Fund for the purchase of water and soil testing equipment to support environmental studies in the area.

The Gull River supports several species of fish. The Ministry of Natural Resources is concerned about the destruction of habitat or the deposit of sediment into lakes and rivers which may have a detrimental effect on wildlife.

The public is asked for its co-operation in protecting the province's natural resources by reporting violations to the local MNR office or to Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

Snowdon Park improvementsStewardship Rangers refurbish nature trails

Nature trails through the Snowdon Park are getting an upgrade thanks to the efforts of the Stewardship Rangers.

In some areas, the raised wooden walkway, which allows visitors access to portions of the park without damaging the wetlands (or getting the visitors feet wet), had deteriorated to the point where they were unsafe. The walkway also enables those in wheel chairs to have access to the trail system. The park is owned by the Municipality of Minden Hills and managed by the Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists.

The Stewardship Rangers are similar to the Ontario Ranger Program, except the five 17 year olds take part in a variety of environmental projects. Ontario Rangers, formerly known as Junior Rangers, live in camp-like settings for the summer whereas Stewardship Rangers live at home and travel to different worksites each day. Members of the local crew of Stewardship

Rangers include Adam Tomlinson, Aaron Ketner, Amanda Boughner and Rachel Anderson. Nick Fawcett is the crew leader.

The crew is working with volunteers from the HHOA as well as staff from the municipality to upgrade the pedestrian causeway. A number of cedar poles for the work have been donated by Dave and Cheryl Bathe.

"This is a great partnership," Minden Hills Reeve Ross Rigney commented as he observed the work being done. "The Field Naturalists have managed the park for the last few years and done a great job at developing the trails."

Peter Brogden of the Field Naturalists pointed out the Snowdon Park trail system is part of the growing network of trails in the county and is promoted through the Haliburton Highlands Trails and Tours Network. "These trails can be used winter or summer," he said noting that cross-country skiers take advantage of the area during the winter.

The Stewardship Rangers have been involved in a number of projects, Fawcett explained. "We have helped with the development of the Nordic Trail system, worked on the Kawartha Highlands signature site, done clean-up on Crown land portages and campsites, assisted with spawning bed rehabilitation with the Haliburton Highlands Outdoors Association and purple loosestrife eradication." The group was devoting three days to the trail rehabilitation in the Snowdon Park.

Safety first when pulling a trailer

The following is submitted on behalf of the Haliburton County Tri-Services Committee which involves the cooperation of emergency services in Haliburton County. Some of the following information was obtained from the Ministry of Transportation of Ontario.

Trailers come in many shapes, sizes and weights. Pulling any trailer requires extra care and attention. A trailer puts extra weight on your vehicle and increases the space you need to drive and stop safely. Trailer safety involves some simple and important rules:

- a trailer must be registered and licensed before it can be used on the road;
- before using your trailer, make sure it is in safe operating condition. Inspect the lights, tires, brakes (if equipped), bearings, safety chains and hitch;
- use the correct class of trailer hitch on your vehicle. (Class I - up to 2000 lb; Class II up to 3500 lb.; Class III - up to 5000 lb; Class IV - 5000 - 10000 lb.) Repair or replace broken or worn out hitches. Contact a trailer hitch retailer for more information.

- thinking about buying a trailer? Consider the size, power and condition of your vehicle. Trailer dealers can help match your vehicle with the right type of trailer and the proper hitch system;
- you must have two separate means of attachment between your vehicle and the trailer. Safety chains equal to the gross tongue weight of the trailer, crossing under the tongue and connected to the hitch. (This does not apply to fifth-wheel attachments);
- when attaching a trailer to a vehicle, make sure it is hitched securely. The trailer tongue should be snug on the ball when locked. Never overload the trailer. Overloading or poor load distribution can cause serious swaying and separation when driving and possible tire, wheel bearing and axle failure. Also, the law requires that loose objects be covered with a tarp and everything attached securely so nothing can bounce or fly off;

- adjust your vehicle mirrors to clearly see traffic approaching from behind. Keep the load low. Use extension mirrors if necessary;

- it is against the law to tow more than one trailer behind your vehicle unless using a commercial vehicle. You cannot carry people in a house or boat trailer;

- you cannot accelerate as fast when towing a trailer, or stop as quickly. Maintain a speed that avoids sudden stops and slow-downs. Be alert, increase your following distance, keep out of fast lanes of traffic and always use your signals.

Each year, many accidents occur on our County roads and highways due to the fact the above simple rules are not followed. Before starting out on a trip with any trailer, remember...safety first.

Over-limit of bass nets $3,150 in fines

Possession of more fish than the legal limit has cost three men a total of $3,150.

Mike Harrison, 34, of Minden and Ray Emms, 48, of Orillia were fined $1,200 each after pleading guilty to possession of eight bass each over the legal limit. Kenneth Wingate, 19, of Orillia was fined $750 for possessing six bass over the limit.

In addition, the court also ordered permanent seizure of the fish and fishing gear.

The trio caught and kept a total of 40 bass from a Minden area lake, which is 22 fish over the legal limit.

Catch and possession limits are in place across the province to protect fish resources.

Another Minden landmark may soon be gone. The old homestead at the corner of Highway 35 and Prince Street is part of the Minden Business Park and the Municipality is expected to be calling for tenders soon for the demolition of the building since there has been some interest shown in the property.

Mister Canoehead(s) run the Yard

While some participants in Friday's Heineken Yard were content to challenge the 7.4 kilometre course in the usual fashion, these three participants from YMCA Camp Wanakita upped the ante. Dan Campanella, Knowles Gingerich and Tim Walker carried the canoe the length of the route to the finish line on Minden's Main street.

A light drizzle couldn't dampen the enthusiasm of Hyland Crest residents as they celebrated the opening of the new gazebo in the courtyard. Clarence the Clown was also on hand to entertain. The residents enjoyed barbecued hot dogs and hamburgers and a fun outdoor setting.

New gazebo opened with BBQ

We're still having very hot weather, but this morning it certainly looks like rain. Although we desperately need it, we hope it holds off until after our grand opening of the gazebo, as a barbecue is planned for the event.

Thelda Weston would like to share her birthday memories with us. She celebrated her 89th last Friday at her daughter's home, with all her favourite foods and with loved ones and a wonderful afternoon was had,

Our Tea Party hosted by Carnarvan U.C.W. was enjoyed by all. We, along with all the birthday celebrities, enjoyed a beautiful birthday cake, wonderful company and excellent food. Thank you ladies.

Happy Hour on Friday brought the entertainment of the Grandfathers and Leisa. What great music and fellowship. Our thanks to these great people.

The weekend was pretty quiet although we did enjoy ice cream cones: pralines and cream no less, mmm!

Rev. Burgess made his regular fellowship visit on Sunday, which we really enjoy. We want him to know our thoughts and prayers are with him at this time and we will be thinking of him often as he has us so many times before. God Bless you.

We enjoyed a game of Trivial Pursuit in the fresh air and sunshine of the balcony. What a joy to be outdoors!

Monday morning the usual exercise class was held with a couple of games played. The winners were, in the bean bag toss, Lillian Millar and Margaret Foote with 100 points each. Now in horseshoes, the lucky winners were Lilian Harrison and Bill Redgrave. Who said exercises can't be fun?

Gord Kennedy graciously played piano for us Monday afternoon. Ed McKelvey even enjoyed a couple of dances that day: how nice it was to see him enjoying himself.

Monday afternoon Connie gathered a large group of residents, Muriel Welch, Eleanor Pye, Harold Orsborn, Bill Redgrave and Edith Russell just to name a few. We gathered out on the patio to socialise and test our memories with a quiz. We even enjoyed a nice cool popsicle while we were out there.

Monday evening the card sharks squared off once again. Bill Redgrave and Thelda Weston won three games against Harold Orsborn and Sheila Burke. Our other table consisted of Roy Nicholls and Lillian Millar who lost three games in a row against Margaret Besse and Olive Wray. By the way, not being one to talk, but do you smell skunk in this?

Tuesday morning brought Chapel Service with Father Fellion leading a wonderful service. We would like to thank the lovely lady guitarist who played for us.

Every Tuesday morning Maraylene Welch gathers our residents downstairs and is kind enough to read a Bible story and share a prayer with them as well as singing their favourite hymns. We thank her and appreciate her faithfulness.

Our regular craft group gathered with Dottie and Brenda and what a beautiful array of butterflies, ladybugs and frogs they created for our calendars along with little ladybugs who peek out at us from plants throughout the home. We thank Dottie and Brenda for their time weekly organising the crafts and our craft group as well for the effort put forth.

Wednesday morning it was exercises as usual, limbering limbs and mastering minds is our goal, keeping everyone active, alert and aware. Our spa bath recipients this week were Hazel Whittaker and Lillian Millar and some of the words they used to describe it were wonderful, warm, relaxing. We'll just say they really liked it!

Our birthday beauties this week are Alice Sedgewick on August 9 and Margaret Besse on the 10th. Happy Birthday ladies!

We believe we have covered our news from last week. The rain is still holding off but it looks more and more like our grand opening of the gazebo in about an hour from now will suffer from a wet BBQ.

by the Roving Reporters

Oh well, we can still celebrate indoors so we'll let you know next week how it turned out. Until then stay well and keep smiling.

Around the County Town

by Nora Snyder (call 286-4450; email <mindenhouse@on.aibn.com>)

Can you believe it is August already? Where did the summer go? August is a good month. Fewer bugs and cool nights for sleeping. Or let's hope so!!

The last week of July was an interesting one for me. One of the things that happened was that another connection was made through this column, Camp Comak and the Frost Centre. Two weeks ago I wrote about 'The St. Nora Sizzle' and the Friends of the Frost Centre group's campaign to raise funds to restore the ranger tower. I wrote, I had climbed that tower many a time. So had Mary. Mary Layton read the item on The Times OnLine web page and lots of memories flooded back to her of earlier years spent up this way on Lake St. Nora and later in Minden. Her summers dove-tailed mine to a great degree.

The years I was at Comak as a young girl, she was staying at a cottage at the Joblin's property across the lake on the mainland. Years later Dad actually bought that property for parking space for island cottagers. Mary stayed at 'Cozy Cottages' across the river from me and was looked after by Grandma Welch. She also stayed at Minden House, then called Laurdic, and was looked after by the Kirkwoods.

Mary and her husband want to move to this area in their retirement. Mary called because of the connections and wanted to make a donation to the restoration of the tower. I look forward to meeting Mary and her husband on their next trip up here. She loves it here as much as I do.

Yet another interesting event was the Dinner and Auction put on by St. Paul's and the Minden Rotary Club. Fun was had by all. The roast beef dinner was delicious and expertly served. All the different types of auctions were fun to participate in. My daughter Emily was lucky enough to bid successfully on a beautiful paddle but sadly missed out on an antique wash basin and 'potty'. Rumor has it that the Rotary Club raised a tidy sum to help pay for all their good works, and the church must have done well as all the dinner tickets were sold. A good, worthwhile evening.

And yet another interesting event. One evening, after dark, guests at Minden House pulled into the back yard parking lot. Their headlights picked up a large deer eating the fallen apples from the apple tree. Of course it ran off at that point, but they got a good sight of it. I can't think of a better way to get those apples eaten. It is so wonderful to be living so close to nature.

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is opening another show on August 9. This one runs until September 2. Paintings from the Gallery's Andre Lapine collection will be on display along with 'Minden Memories', A Photographic Excursion in the Highlands. Included in this exhibit is the audio visual, 'A year in the Life of Minden' which was shown before at the gallery. It will be shown again at the opening reception on Saturday, August 11 at 2 p.m. Call for other show times. It is a great picture into our life in our village. Look for the flowered balcony belonging to Carol Jones!!

The Minden and District Horticultural Society is holding its monthly meeting on Tuesday, August 7 (tonight) at 7:15 p.m. at the Minden Community Centre. Pat Campbell is demonstrating how to prepare for a flower competition. Please bring 'Berry Good Treats' for the lunch.

As we head into a new month, I hope we all enjoy this wonderful time of the year with family and friends in our summer homes..

ULTRAVIOLET DISINFECTION SYSTEM

UV-25 System

It is nature's own disinfection/purification method.
Ultraviolet is a means of killing or rendering harmless microorganisms in a dedicated environment.
These microorganisms can range from bacteria and viruses to algae and protozoa. A major advantage of UV treatment is that it is capable of disinfecting water faster than chlorine without cumbersome retention tanks and harmful chemicals. UV treatment systems are also extremely cost efficient.
As individual UV lamps emit
a set amount of ultraviolet energy, it is important that a system be sized correctly.

IN MEMORIAM

NESBITT - In remembrance of our friend, Sinc, who passed away July 27, 2000.

*A life is like a song we write
In our own tone and key
Each life we touch reflects a note
That forms the melody.*

*We choose the theme and chorus
Of the song to bear our name,
And each will have a special sound,
No two can be the same.*

*So when someone we love departs,
In memory we find
Their song plays on with in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.*

We know not the depth of our friendship until the hour of separation.
